Australians Naval Battle Group

When the Australian nation split into the Royal Australians and the Commonwealth of Australia, each side took with them half of the Australian Fleet. Brand new ships at the time, they have now seen many years of service under both flags, constantly being re-armed and refitted to their owner's requirements. Royalist ships have been upgraded with the finest advancements in Britannian gunnery and shield technology, whilst the Commonwealth, with their close ties to the Covenant of Antarctica, have upgraded their ships to carry crude but effective energy weapons. 2 Cerberus Class Battleships 2 Tasmania Class Tender/Cruisers 4 Victoria Class Monitors 8 Protector Class Frigates 8 Crocodile Class Assault Submarines
