Description
Legion: Nephilim Protector

Contains one unassembled unpainted plastic model.

From birth, nephilim protectors obey an instinctive imperative to guard Everblight's warlocks and will dive into harm's way without hesitation or concern for their own lives. They are also ideal vessels for any grave wounds their warlocks shunt to them, as they are bred to endure these injuries. Ever alert to their surroundings, protectors stand with halberds ready to intercept any approaching threat.
