Description

Doctor McMourning is the Guild's corroner during the day and a mad scientist experimenting with the morgue's bodies at night. McMourning is an expert at poisons and a melee monster with his scalpel. Offering a very ''in your face'' playstyle, the Doctor and his crew will charm you for their tons of little synergies while dealing the amount of damage you expect from melee beatsticks. Dr. McMourning can work for the Guild or for himself under the Resurrectionists.
